“My time spent volunteering for help2read, has been eye opening, rewarding, inspiring and life-changing. The school, staff and pupils are absolutely fantastic and I hope they gain as much from the experience as I do. If you’re wondering whether to volunteer or not, I can’t recommend it enough! Do it!”

- Ariana Frankis,
Marine Primary

“I was not aware who the kind hearted man helping my child with reading was. After giving her a Christmas card, I now know he is Uncle Bob from help2read. She has loved the time spent with him and I have noticed a great improvement in her reading. Struggling with reading was causing her a lot of stress as it affects all the other work they do. So thank you from a parent, to Uncle Bob.”

Bay Primary

Become a volunteer reading helper
and improve a child’s life forever

What do reading helpers do?

Volunteers help children become more confident readers by:

- reading with them
- playing games
- having discussions
- making reading fun

About help2read

help2read empowers children with vital literacy skills. Volunteer reading helpers are trained and placed in local primary schools where they work with children individually.

Who can volunteer?

help2read volunteers are:

- committed to helping children
- available for at least an hour a week during school hours
- proficient in English
- aged between 18 and 90
